“ Hi Michael: God made fathers because there was too much work for god and mothers to do. Your life is rich. I share your grief. God bless you and the memories.

“ mike, i was sorrowed to learn of your fathers passing as i have just lost my mother at 93 and i can still feel the lost.

As a classmate and former neighbor please think of Columbus with fondness and that your classmates are thinking of you, and your family. We were sorry to not see you at our 50th but were thinking of you when Tom Parry showed us your year books. Dave Ingalls

“ Mike, there is a time for all things, and from the current void, I hope you find the memories of past joy and laughter comfort you. Sorry you could not join us at reunion, we were all as young as we were 50 years ago. God's peace be with you.
