

Elias David Weinstock

February 10, 2001 - March 3, 2021

Elias David Weinstock, age 20 of Bexley died unexpectedly at his college residence in Washington D.C. on March 3, 2021. He was born on February 10, 2001 at Riverside Methodist Hospital, to parents Michael and Beth Weinstock. From that moment forward, he was loved more than any son or brother ever was, and he knew that love every moment of his too-short life. In order to survive this grief, his family will remember his swift and sharp wit, his appetite for experience and connection with people, and his loyalty to his beloved family. Eli recently bought his family a Monopoly game for the holidays, just so we could spend more time together—or maybe so he could beat his siblings—but either way the game and his presence brought us so much joy. Eli was in his sophomore year at American University, majoring in marketing and communications. He loved to explore the capital (sometimes on a dirt bike), lift weights, and skateboard. Eli had a kind heart and was fiercely protective of the people he loved. He completed an internship in the preschool room of a Spanish-speaking community center in Washington D.C., and said this was the best part of college. In high school, he won the Temple Israel Madrichim of the Year award for his powerful and compassionate connection with young children, and we know he was really proud of this award. He truly packed so much into only twenty years – he was an avid snowboarder, explorer, filmmaker, Quentin Tarantino aficionado, Lego master, and friend to all who crossed his path. He and his mom rode 100 miles for Pelotonia; he backpacked through the Tetons with his dad. He had an uncanny ability to move between different groups of friends, and make those groups connect; perhaps he knew how fleeting and precious human connection can be. Eli is survived by his parents and his siblings Olivia (21), Theo (16), and Annie (13), his grandmother Carole Johnson, grandparents Frank and Saragale Weinstock of Florida, his aunt and uncle Dave and Nicole Johnson, aunt and uncle Lillian Archbold and Jeffrey Weinstock, aunt and uncle Jill and Ted Deutch, and beloved cousins Della, Perry, and Harper Johnson, Kyle and Ryan Weinstock, Cole and Serena and Gabby Deutch, as well as many other relatives. He is preceded in death by his grandfather David Johnson, after whom he is named. We would love to list all of his friends but thankfully the list is too long. A private graveside funeral service will be held with family members at 11:00am on Sunday, March 7th. To receive a link to the Zoom please email zoom2@epsteinmemorial.com The family requests donations be made to Bexley Education Foundation at bexleyeducationfoundation.org in memory of Eli Weinstock, to provide future need-based scholarship opportunities. Online guest book at www.epsteinmemorial.com

“ Mike,

My heart is breaking for you, Beth and the rest of your family after recently hearing about the death of your dear son Eli. I remember meeting Eli briefly at a soccer match in Bexley when both of our boys were young soccer players. He was already a shining light and a light I know you can't imagine being without. I can't stop thinking about your family as you try to navigate this unbearable loss. You have the deepest of my sympathy.

“ Michael and Beth,

I was so saddened to read in the Jewish News of Eli's untimely passing. It has been a long time since I used to come to your house for Eli's flute lessons. I always found him to be a joy to teach - always with a smile on his face. He will be missed by many. My deepest condolences to you and your family. May he be for a blessing.

“ Mike and Beth:
I am heartbroken for you all!!
I realize there is nothing much to say that can do any good. Know that you and Beth are in my thoughts - and that I wish you comfort within the community. What an outstanding young man he was.

“ All of my memories live through his beautiful mother sharing her bountiful love for her son. Every spa experience I had the privilege to listen and feel the love. A mothers love and ability to connect so specifically with each child is the greatest gift and the bond of these two always resonated with me. This physical loss of this brilliant young man words cannot describe. His spirit is made up of infinite energy and infinite love. I send, we at replenish send love, courage and faith -believing in what you cannot physically see but can feel with your whole heart) Godspeed. Love you Beth. With care Deja

“ Our hearts are completely broken for you all. Our memories of Eli were that he was always smiling and having fun. Simon adored him and we are blessed to have known him and your family. There was one story of the boys at a fast food joint and Eli climbed into a highchair and got stuck. The kids loved his wit and coy and wicked smile. He will be missed. The Rosenbergs
