“ Please know how very sorry I am to have learned of your Mother's passing. She was a very kind and generous woman of great valor who cared for her community and shared many close friendships. She will be forever missed.

“ Janet was everywhere and everywhere she brought light and love. She accomplished so much and cared for so many. Barry, you have cared so lovingly for your mother and enabled her to continue her fine work during her later years. May her memory bring you comfort as it will to those who knew her.

“ Barry and Family: Marcie and I have so many memories. I suppose I shall always think of her as a person who was a can-do type. Wherever she was, whatever circumstance, at work, at shul, personally, she forged ahead with grit and grace.

“ I have known Janet since I worked for Earl at Jewish Family Services. They were founders of Shalom House and I remember Janet baking Birthday cakes for all the residents. She has had a profound influence on Tifereth Israel and many other organizations in Columbus. May the memory of her outstanding life be a blessing for her loved ones. Judy and Jerry Liepack

“ Janet was such an amazing woman. I first met Janet and Earl when they came to our home on Stanwood, where I was a child at the time. Being that I'm now 66, that's a very long friendship, lol. I remember them with so much love. Janet continued her lifelong friendship with our family and she was a most treasured friend to my mother, over so many years. I will never forget her kindness in helping my Mom make shiva when my father, Mayer Rosenfeld, passed away. She was always so generous and supportive. And her visiting my Mom regularly when she lived her remaining years at Heritage House meant more to me and my mom than I can say. Janet was a source of light and love and of course delicious baked goods, which my Mom so enjoyed eating and sharing with staff who would come by. To say Janet was one in a million, would be an understatement! She will be so missed. She touched so many lives, including mine, my parents and my sister, Robin Brenneman. May she rest in piece and may you all be comforted by your memories. Much love, Karen (Rosenfeld) Block Russell
