“ To Ken and Lori and all your family, we send our condolences in the passing of Ken's mother. Having read her impressive obituary, the most descriptive and telling sentences that summed up Lois' life were:

Her greatest joy was being a mother, grandmother, wife and friend.

And

How lucky she felt to have so many adoring grandchildren. That identifies a most important appreciation from her heart and an obvious evaluation of her from theirs.

What precious memories she is leaving for all of you to ponder and treasure.

Peace and Love to all of you,
Jack and Dotti vance

“ I suppose we all found different ways to smile and enjoy Lois' great sense of humor.

I got to know her ... later in life @ Lois' & Harry's home in Bexley. She always opened the home for me and was very kind to me.

What a wonderful lady. She was loving, loved, and will be missed. Warmly, Johnny Stern & Family.

“ Thinking of all of you during this difficult time
Lois was a wonderful lady and she will be missed.

“ Dear Madison and Greenblott Family, I am so saddened to hear of the loss of a true lady ..Lois was also revered in the real estate community .She was a true professional and had integrity in her dealings. I loved working with her over the years on certain properties ..She was just a pleasure and knew her profession extremely well. Over the years if we worked on something together, Harry would love to get on the phone and ask how he could help us put the deal together .They were a fun couple. Roni Leeman
