Comments

“ Perhaps contrary to his gruff appearance, Ugo was my greatest cheerleader in my early years of scouting. He encouraged me as a scout leader in ways no one else did, and with humor and frank advice, made me believe that I could truly impact the boys I led. I will remember Ugo fondly and gratefully, and with much respect for his service and dedication. Marilyn, I am mourning with you, but also celebrating a life well lived.

“ I got to know Ugo late in life but always enjoyed our rides to roundtable and committee meetings, sometimes more than the meetings themselves. He was a true friend and his love and devotion to Scouting will be Missed.
